

LaBar Golf Renovations (LGR, LLC) is a high-end golf course construction and renovation company doing business throughout the United States. Founded in 2012, LGR, LLC has experienced rapid growth and today, with a 100+ employee team, is recognized as best in class in domestic golf course renovations.

LGR, LLC has an immediate opening for an Assistant Project Manager to join our team at Coachella Golf Club, a new golf course construction project set to start in December of 2021. The project will be 10+ months with the ability to stay on as a full-time employee after successful completion of the project. The position represents a special opportunity for the right individual to start and build a career in the golf course industry learning under some of the best in the business. If the candidate is successful in the Assistant Project Manager position and chooses to stay on with the company, career growth will be rapid.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Work closely with Project Manager
- Turf-industry work ethic
- Work cohesively with co-workers at all levels as well as clients
- Assist with weekly payroll duties
- Assist with managing and training personnel

QUALIFICATIONS:

- Clean / polished appearance
- Valid driver's License and clean driving record a MUST
- Routine drug testing required
- Degree in Turf Management or related field a plus
- Speak / understand Spanish a plus
- If candidate stays on for full time position travel will be a must

BENEFITS & PAY

- Competitive compensation package (salary $75K-$85K + bonus)
- Cell phone will be provided
- Comprehensive Medical/Dental/Vision plans offered
- 401(k) plan offered after a year of service

Please send resume and salary requirements to: Kerri@labargolf.com